

Associate

Job Description for the position of an Associate:

- Patent Analyst is responsible for matters involving patent related information mining, collation, analysis and transformation of complimentary pieces of information to enable business decisions
- Assesses customer's needs and formulates project scope from independent client interactions. Executes tasks from an end-to-end perspective with minimal or no guidance
- Works collaboratively with technologists, attorneys and information specialists in researching, analyzing and presenting key observations using analytics tools
- Supports attorneys regarding intellectual property matters arising from litigation, licensing or other business transactions involving patents

Skills required:

- Expertise in IP functional skills to carry out thorough and precise patent related searches; quantitatively or qualitatively analyze data and present analysis reports to customers within strict timelines and quality standard.
- Excellent understanding of patent classifications, standard tools and databases, various analytics methodologies.
- Good understanding of US, EP and India patenting systems.
- Strong verbal and written communication skills, excellent presentation skills
- Excellent interpersonal skills, team player and ability to handle pressure Patent – Associate

Experience:

- Minimum 1 yrs of relevant technical exp like research /analysis /development

- Minimum 1 yrs of relevant exp in IP analytics.

Qualification:

- Bachelor /Master Degree in Engineering in Electronics
- M.Sc./B.Sc. Organic Chemistry